Brentwood is a thriving community located in the heart of St. Louis County, just south of the county seat, Clayton, and a mile and a half west of the city of St. Louis. Brentwood is known as the "City of Warmth" because of its small town charm and sense of community. Brentwood encompasses a mere 1.5 square miles yet is packed full of advantages as a business and employment center. As part of the mid-county employment hub, the city's daytime population is nearly triple the residential population. Brentwood's central location, as well as its proximity to major research hospitals, universities and downtown St. Louis are reasons many technology and life-science businesses are located there.

Located at the intersection of I-64 and I-170 in the heart of the St. Louis metro area, Richmond Heights successfully melds "Progress with Tradition." Richmond Heights boasts a diverse population from all walks of life; a wide array of well-maintained and attractive homes in established, desirable neighborhoods; quality public and private schools and high-quality city services. Richmond Heights is home to the Saint Louis Galleria, a premier destination shopping mall located in the heart of the city, and St. Louis' #1 performing mall. The Saint Louis Galleria opened in 1984 and is anchored by Macy's, Dillard's and Nordstrom. Also located in Richmond Heights, across from the Saint Louis Galleria is The Boulevard, a premier lifestyle development in the St. Louis metro area. The Boulevard is a vibrant village with a unique blend of upscale retail, fine dining and luxury residences. The Heights' is a 73,000 square foot community center in Richmond Heights. It is one of the largest and well-equipped municipal facilities in the St. Louis metro area with a fully-functioning youth fitness facility, double gymnasium, indoor water park, full-service library and other amenities.
